FOR WOMEN WHO WANT MORE

Lady Prelox® Intimacy is ideal for women in their reproductive years, peri-menopausal or post-menopausal. Whether your spark is flickering or simply needs a gentle nudge, this science-backed supplement helps reignite your connection both physically and emotionally.

In clinical trials, women experienced improvements in desire, arousal, lubrication, orgasm, pain and satisfaction within just 4 to 8 weeks of daily use.

THE SCIENCE OF DESIRE

Lady Prelox® Intimacy contains a patented blend of ingredients proven to improve sexual function:

1. Pycnogenol® French maritime pine bark extract, backed by 40 years of research, supports blood flow and nitric oxide production for increased sensitivity and ease of arousal.
2. L-Arginine & L-Citrulline Amino acids work in synergy to boost nitric oxide, improving circulation and stimulation.
3. Rosvita® is a patented rose hip extract with potent antioxidant properties that helps support mood and psychological wellbeing as well as endothelial health.

EACH CAPLET CONTAINS:

L-Arginine HCL	400 mg
L-Citrulline	400 mg
Rosvita®	100 mg
Pycnogenol®	40 mg

CONFIDENCE AND SATISFACTION

Lady Prelox® Intimacy is backed by clinical studies showing significant improvements in female sexual function.

- In just 4 weeks, pre- and peri-menopausal women reported significant improvements in the quality of intercourse, frequency, satisfaction and clitoral sensation.
- After 8 weeks, post-menopausal women experienced further benefits – including increased desire, arousal, lubrication, orgasm, satisfaction and reduced pain.
- All women saw a 71% improvement in orgasm frequency from baseline in just 4 weeks.

Lady Prelox® Intimacy delivers real results for women at every stage of life.
